Advanced Education Research in the Disciplines

Department of Educational Policy Studies
University of Wisconsin-Madison

A program for international visiting scholars

The Department of Educational Policy Studies at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, in collaboration with the Office of Continuing Studies, has established a new workshop for international visiting scholars (e.g., CSC scholars) called "Advanced Education Research in the Disciplines."

While all international visiting scholars in the Department of Educational Policy Studies participate in this workshop, it is open to international visiting scholars across the university. The cost of the workshop for 2018 is approximately $4,000 (including a workshop fee of $3,700, plus a School of Education administrative fee of $300).

The application deadline is February 1, the workshop itself takes place from early September to early November each year. To apply, please complete this form and email it along with a copy of your CV and statement of research plans to Mary Jo Gessler at maryjo.gessler@wisc.edu. After participants have been accepted and their visas have been processed, they enroll in the "Advanced Education Research in the Disciplines" course (EDPOL 600) and pay the course fee.
